"Till Tomorrow"

Visit "Till Tomorrow" on MotoLyrics.com

Well I guess you came here, unforgiven for all your past
Hard times we live in Hard times that never let you in
I'm sorry what about my life
I won't look back
Since you're gone
Followed out my worries
I've gone away
Time slept till tomorrow
Can I relieve my past years life
Some fools would say
You'll get your wat if you just wait
I can't be patient
When time is coming to an end
Forsaken, all that you been given
I won't look back
Time's running, what about my life
I'm far away
