They come for my eyes and ride on,
The sky will fall, gone.
The light will go off and die.
They betray dark and let it fall,
And through the blank sky to the floor,
They never leave the sky alone,
Kill the floor, the end of all.
Let it go, Let it fall, Let go, Let go.

We will fight for the sky.
And never see the world again.

For the sky's life.
For the day light.
For the blank sky.
Fight for the sky.

Welcome to die, destroy my life.
Placing dark to the fallen sky.
Welcome to die, destroy my life.
The end of the world in my sight.
Come on...
Let it go, Let it fall, Let go, Let go.

Pray for the sky-fall.
Pray for all.
When the sky falls,
We're done for all.

When the sky falls with heaven,
End of all, break down to hell.
When the floor will be broken,
And the world fights with itself.

Broken heaven order to die,
Our hell flying so high.
Last breath taken sends us to die,
Fall the sky.
