Swear your lies...

I remember you promised me you'll love me forever,
But real quick you broke up with me and you gave no reason.

I can't understand, just... makes no sense,
That you stole my love and ran away...

Love has shown what it takes,
And you just quit...
Love lies.

All my questions you answered: it's no reason, and no
reason.
So keep telling me the story too mean that you've written.
All the touch and love, all the kisses and hugs...
We had for what?

Lie till our love dies.
Love has shown what it takes,
And you just quit...

Keep lies for love and burn my heart...
Swear to your god... your lies.
