When tragedy strikes
No words console
Patience, Beth
You'll learn to cope

Don't shut it up, just let it out
Grief is what if not loud
But when you saw
Oh, that Light
A deal with Gabriel did you strike?

"Tragic, yes but I wasn't scared...
I'm sorry that I left like this.
Know that I am loving you
And when you sleep
I am watching you.
Big sister, oh, my Light - it's a shame but we Have to die."

I know it hurts but good god girl get up and fight for
It.
