"The Catch"

Meet my new friends
One a boxer
Two are senators
Three lion tamers
All pretty faces
Together we'll save the world from desperation and Dismay.
Oh, oh. Oh, oh. Oh, oh.

Our house is under water at the fault of the government
They raised the point.
The city is a bad lover, too quick, and inattentive.
Let's sink it and build ourselves over. Over, over, over.
Ba ba ba ba-da Ba ba ba-da Ba ba ba-da-da-da

How will we keep warm, alone in a bed?

How will we keep warm, alone in a town?

Silly citizens, who know there's a catch.
Silly citizens, who know there's a catch.
Silly citizens, who know there's a catch.
Silly citizens, who know there's a catch.

How will we keep warm, alone in our beds?
How will we keep warm, alone in our towns?

How will we keep warm, alone in our beds?
How will we keep warm, alone in our towns?
