In the cold November sky
I saw my past trailing by
Illusions sent me astray
My chances gone

I lost you in the dark
I lost your beating heart
I lost you to the years
I lost you through my tears
So often I cry for you
Do you cry for me too?

As the snow begins to fall
Darkness traps me in her walls
Longing to see your face
Dare I imagine

I lost you in the dark
I lost your beating heart
I lost you to the years
I lost you through my tears
So often I cry for you
Do you Cry for me too?

I lost you in the dark
I lost your beating heart
I lost you to the years
I lost you through my tears
So often I cry for you
Do you Cry for me too?

Did you know my name
My face a withered frame
I'm not what you have known
You're a girl alone
