"Blame"

I'm sitting in my chair
I hear the accusation
My body tense with fear
I'm in a bad position

I am the one to blame
I have no shame

I did it out of anger
My actions were quite clear
His pain will always linger
I will not shed a tear

I am the one to blame
I have no shame

For his deceitful lying
He'll be the one to suffer
Her patience he was trying
He never really loved her

I am the one to blame
I have no shame
