Driving through this chaos
Seeing many flaws
I leap to aide in correction
And disappear

Lovely sparks are flying
Motionless I observe
Waiting for the ending
To arrive

The fire warming up tonight
Can you hear me?
Too far gone to touch
Can you hear me?

It will always be
Someone else's fantasy
Like fingernails that won't grow
I am full of dead hope
Won't anybody listen to me?

Ignition fails to greet me
Cold by the side of the road
Turn over, turn over, turn
And look into my eyes

It's never going to pay
To lead my life this way
Appreciation gone
Needing for anyone
To listen to me

No more fuel
Fire's gone
Starkness
No one
