Curved arrow hits me
Too late to kiss me
You bow to miss me
Cannot assist me

Life's blood leaving my veins
Now I lie in my grave

Blind palace wants me
All shadows haunt me
Devil's treasure flaunts me
Who else will taunt me

Life's blood leaving my veins
Now I lie in my grave

Black water drowning
Sad faces frowning
Knife's blood is burning
Bodies are turning

Life's blood leaving my veins
Now I lie in my grave
