If I could then I would,
Take you away from here tonight
You're the air I breathe

Do you remember those cold Decembers
With you wrapped around me as tight as a glove

We watch the stars in the sky
Midnight blue matches your eyes
Together forever and ever she said
But she lied, nothing can last forever

If I could then I would,
Take you away from here tonight
You're the air I breathe

If I could turn back time
I'd do it all to make you my
Starlite addiction

I'm always dreamin'
Never stop believin'
That you could still be standing right next to me

We watch the stars in the sky
Midnight blue matches your eyes
Together forever and ever she said
But she lied, nothing can last forever

If I could then I would,
Take you away from here tonight
You're the air I breathe

If I could turn back time
I'd do it all to make you my
Starlite addiction

Whoa ohohoh
Whoa yeah yeahh

If I could then I would,
Take you away from here tonight

You're the air I breathe

If I then I would,
Take you away from here tonight
You're the air I breathe

If I could turn back time
I'd do it all to make you my
Starlite addiction
