The subject's killed
The topic is dead and buried
No evidence to out our lies
No skeletons barkin' 'bout what they seen
Loose ends are sewn up just like mouths

Keep the corpses quiet
Keep the corpses quiet
Leave the evidence where they lay

There is no evil seen, heard or talked about
At least none that you can find
Who hasn't been the murderer, lie, cheat, or thief
There's no innocent to cast the first stone

Keep the corpses quiet
Keep the corpses quiet
Leave the evidence where they lay
