"Highest Stakes"

Acting like a leader in a front line
Always' been pushed from behind
Walking on a suit and fancy tights
Before you see the lights
You have to die

Highest stakes on market stocks
You've got holes in your socks
Stressing time for no-time guy
Modern life infatuation
One-man army against a nation

Buried six feet down

Empty pockets no friends around
Hanging upside down
Going nowhere fast
Now you did your best
Now it's time to rust and rest

Think about the life you left far aside
And all the times you did not run or hide
Sure you had big walls outside
To protect tiny little castle inside

Enjoy the view from this heights
