Nobody said that it was easy
Nobody said that this is how it should be
I want to be
I want to dream
I want to see what we are missing

Every step you take, I'll walk you through it
Even when you break, I'll put it back together
If they try to throw you to the ground
If they want to kick you when you're down
Even if there's no one else around
I will stand up, will stand up for you Always you and me, never going to stop what we believe
Even if the world is on its knees
I will stand up, stand up for you

I know you're past has made you cautious
I know the future is more than you can see
But I believe, I believe, we can kick the door wide Open

Every step you take, I'll walk you through it
Even when you break, I'll put it back together
If they try to throw you to the ground
If they want to kick you when you're down
Even if there's no one else around
I will stand up, stand up for you
Always you and me, never going to stop what we
Even if the world is on its knees
I will stand up, stand up for you

We can turn this thing all around
We can make it with our hands untied
I will stand up, stand up

If they try to throw you to the ground
If they want to kick you when you're down
Even if there's no one else around
I will stand up, stand up for you

Always you and me, never going to stop what we
Even if the world is on it's knees
I will stand up, stand up for you

(Stand up)
(Stand up)
Stand up
(Stand up)
I will stand up for you
(Stand up)
Anything you want, anything you need, anything that you
Want me to be
I will be the one I will stand up, stand up for you
