Who's gonna be a meal for the urchins now?
It's goin down (x4)

Last time I had dinner with a racist
Last time I just fell asleep
Last time I got a little bit wasted
And dreamed of a plane crashing into the sea

If I go down in a plane I'll go to hell
But I'll leave all my shit to my friends in a will
You can have my Crown Vic
You can have my debt

You can have my weakness and my regret
Sweetheart take your dump truck memories
And bury them in the cold cold ground
I'll come back for some dead man's lovin
You'll need to cum
I'll need to throttle down
It's goin down (x4)

Salesmen and racists and football stars
All hangin out at the hotel bar
Tellin those jokes
Clearin their throats
Drinkin their dinner and smokin my dope
But I will smile and I'll backslap
And laugh at those jokes
And gladly shake their hands
