Leaving me without a trace
You couldn't see my weeping face
I would call this real unfair
That's when you were gone somewhere

For what seems real we try to heal
And what's the point and what's the deal
A big impact the way you act
That's what I hate you were so fake, so fake

Fake it, fake it
Don't you have to?
Fake it, fake it
Don't you have to?

Well, I know it seems delayed
That I'm facing me betrayed
I would call this real unfair
That's when you were going somewhere

What's in between you haven't seen
You didn't know how it's been
A big impact the way you act
That's what I hate you were so fake, so fake

Fake it, fake it
Don't you have to?
Fake it, fake it
Don't you have to?

Fake it, fake it
Don't you have to?
Fake it, fake it
Don't you have to?

Fake it, fake it
Don't you have to?
Fake it, fake it
Don't you have to?
