

Pyogenesis "On Soulwings"

Visit "On Soulwings" on MotoLyrics.com

Beauty and happiness, a world of health
The power, the glory, the might of ourselves
Fights, hate, greed and the maze

But then comes the fire
Tyranny reigns
Harmony is damaged - Love gets exhomed
Now my hammer falls

Choirs of the gods resound through this night
A bitter last warning
The appearance of the giants - Hail
The battle begins
Last flight on soulwings
Perfunctory leading light
Empirical engulfed in unaccountable winds

Like a typhoons hand
This emotional screams touch my ears
Harmonies hazard - That this crown sings?

Choirs of the gods resound through this night
A bitter last warning
The appearance of the giants - Hail
The battle begins
Last flight on soulwings
