(music: Tim Eiermann / Flo Schwarz lyrics: Tim Eiermann)

taste my lips and fly away touch my mind, your life delay drink my death and feel the divine energy of sins away away like a bird I fly to the deepest sky I'm always on the run not so far away as I thought in my dreams sinfeast
faith in the ways of lust holy deep inside my guts after all pure sins
I give it all away to you
burn me, hit me
you're out of luck bless good sins, loss of love do you think that I'm still insane
sinfeast
