Every night and every day
I'll turn to you and say
Will the beauty come our way?
Is it time for us to play
And the time to start believing?
Do you know what we are feeling?
Do you know?

Every night and every day
You'll hear me say
Every night and every day
We gotta live, we gotta live!

Time for peace, not time for war
What we should be asking for?
Speak up loudly rich and poor
Time for peace, not time for war
Can we live our lives with fire
Bitter love and sweet desire
Gotta live!
Every night and every day
We gotta live!
Every night and every day

Every night and every day!
Every night and every day!
Every night and every day!
Every night and every day!
Every night and every day!
Every night and every day!

Every night and every day
I'll turn to you and say
Will the beauty come our way?
Is it time for us to play
And the time to start believing?
Do you know what we are feeling?
Do you know?

Every night and every day
You'll hear me say

Every night and every day

Every night and every day!
Every night and every day!
Every night and every day!
Every night and every day!
Every night and every day!
Every night and every day!

Every night and every day
We gotta live!, we gotta live!
Every night and every day
We gotta live!, we gotta live!
Every night and every day
We gotta live!, we gotta live!
Every night and every day
We gotta live!, we gotta live!
