"One More Time"

Don't look back just go away, save your threats for another day. I gave it all for a glimmer of hope, I showed you love now I'm your joke.

One more time I'm left broken,
One more time words unspoken,
One more time emptiness inside,
One more time I'm left living in a lie.

Wasted time is all I have left, the broken promises I kept. Oblivious to you, oblivious to me you can't handle reality.

One more time I'm left broken,
One more time words unspoken,
One more time emptiness inside,
One more time I'm left living in a lie.
You - will never fade away.
