"The Lake Of Burning Suffering"

Fire will make you suffer
Suffer for the anguish
Anguish that you caused us
This shall be your punishment

They will see your weakness
The true self inside you
Not the steel and the stone
Cut down the outer facade

Preaching but illusions
Falsehood upon falsehood
The lies you have told us
They will die along with you

It's your turn to suffer
Feel hate feed upon you
Swim in flame eternal
We will watch you burn
In the fires of hell
I will watch you burn
In the fires of hell
Burn!

Feel the hellfire, time to punish
We pleasure in your tortured screams

Feel the hellfire, flames surround you
We pleasure in your tortured screams

Feel the hellfire, burn eternal
We pleasure in your tortured screams

Feel the hellfire!

Feel the heat of the flame
Torrid land, pyric grave
Ignited corpse slow-burning
Feel the heat of the flame
Roasting flesh, seething blood
Fire which purifies

Feel the heat of the flame
Scorch the skin, punish sin
Corrupt soul, forever damned

Feel the heat of the flame
Hack the limb, crack the bone
Watching you pyrolyze
Most sacred fire of hell
Flame that's ever-living

Dark flame of eternity
Consuming your tyranny

Withering in pain
Feel the lash of the flame

Your world will end in fire
This shall be your punishment!

Dark fire of fury
Lake of immortal flame
Torture eternally
Feel the hellfire!

The lake of fire
Is ever-burning
Eternal cremation
Suffer the pain

In the lake of burning suffering
Feel the flame and enjoy your fate!
