It was over a year since we last met
With friends like that, you don't forget
'Cos we go back a long way yet
And it's always just the same
We start talking about old times
I'm ok and you're doing fine
Then we open our first bottle of wine
Here we go again
And I'm thinking of you still
'Cos the times we had were real
Maybe we can do it again in crazy Amsterdam

Oh Scotty, you're a dangerous man
How you do it I don't understand
A rake and a rambling, gambling man
And it's always one drink more
One more smoke and one more drink
You always get me so I just can't think
And I'll feel such a fool when I fall down drunk
And I'm crawling on the floor
And I'm thinking of you still
'Cos the times we had were real
Maybe we can do it again in crazy Amsterdam

So sing it Scotty, one more time
Shout out the chorus and I'll be fine
You sing the song, I'll sing the harmony line
You take me back to when
Your rock 'n' roll medleys keep on going round like
Old Chuck Berry and the promised land
'Til the people start singing and jumping around
Here we go again
And I'm thinking of you still
'Cos the times we had were real
Maybe we can do it again in crazy Amsterdam
Maybe we can do it again in crazy Amsterdam
