REFRAIN:

Some dreams are big, some dreams are small,
Some dreams are carried away on the wind and never dreamt at all.
Some dreams tell lies, some dreams come true.
I've got a whole lot of dreams and I can dream for you.

If not for me, if not for you,
I'd be dreaming all day I wouldn't know what to do.

I'd hang around, I'd lose my way,
I'd put off what I couldn't do for another day.

REFRAIN

I've spent my life hung out on dreams.
I've float along like a summer cloud or so it seems.

I get it wrong most thing I do,
But I could write a song and this one's for you ...

REFRAIN

Some call it faith, some call it chance,
Some call it waiting around for someone to ask you to dance.

If I had my way, if I could call the tune,
You wouldn't have to wait 'cause I'd dance you around the moon.
