

P.Y.T. "Dinosaurs"

Visit "Dinosaurs" on MotoLyrics.com

I see no stars at all
What a beautiful household
You have got; You have had
My attention from the get-go
It's hard to match,
Cells stick together
It's their only job
And they can't do it much longer

Leaves come down in fall
But for now we're stuck in their place
'Cause we have?'s face
One hot and lonely set of months
Before those walks
I take outside
Get too cold to drag for hours at a time

Some heartwarming words
In a bad motel
You laugh 'cause you're unsure
Of which way it felt

I say "Holy shit" and that's it
I read on to the part about the sunset
'Cause I know it is there that the soliders
Line up in tidy rows
As we drive past amusement parks
With one of those dinosaurs they build up on the side of the highway

And some heartwarming words
In a bad motel
You laugh 'cause you're unsure
Of which way it felt
