One step at a time
failing in my memory
caught up in a smile
I'd have thought she'd know by now I only had to try and when I think of all of the games that people play I've fallen for them all fallen for them all along the way

One step at a time
breaking down the barrier holding back the time when I think of all of the things that people say
I've fallen for them all
I've fallen for them all along the way

I've heard their sad goodbyes
I've taken all their calls
I've listened to the lies now I realise I've fallen for them all
I've fallen for them all

When we go our separate ways it doesn't matter what they say
I've fallen for them all

One step at a time
I am moving closer now and leave it all behind
when I think of all of the things that people say
I've fallen for them all
I've fallen for them all along the way

I've heard their sad goodbyes
I've taken all their calls
now I realise I've fallen for them all
taken in by everything they say
taken in by everything they say
I've fallen for them all
I've fallen for them all

I've fallen for them all
I've fallen for them all

One step at a time
failing in my memory
