Nothing like a memory to open up a broken heart
It's been years but I look at you now and you're torn apart

Nothing like a face to take you back to the time
When it was you and I against the world just you and I

And I wish it hadn't happened to us
You fell in love with that girl
And I wish it hadn't happened to us
You fell in love with that girl
And I wish it wasn't true
But all you cared about was the girl

Nothing like a lover to set you up for a fall Like you're feeling you're ready to die like you've lost it all

Nothing like you and I in that place in time
And it's so hard letting you go
'Cause you're still on my mind

And I wish it hadn't happened, man
But you fell in love with that girl
Yeah, I wish it never happened to us
You fell in love with that girl
Yeah, I wish it wasn't true
But all you cared about was the girl
