So here we go
With my faith and my hands really shaking
Airplane, take us all away to New York City

Music cribbed, record pressed
Carolina, southern Carolina
Listen to me sing, New York City

And if your heart is broken
You'll find fellowship with me
And if your ears are open
You'll hear honesty from me tonight

Hair on my head, tongue in my mouth
I've got it all figured out
Open up your heart tonight, New York City

Tongue in my ear, hair in my mouth
I want you to figure me out
Open up your arms tonight, New York City

And if your heart is broken
You'll find fellowship with me
And if your ears are open
You'll hear honesty from me tonight
