You will remember...

The sea looks kinda rough today
Water cold and grey
Somewhere beneath all the fears and the old routines
Under that boat that you float in a treasure gleams

Dive like a dolphin down beneath the waves
Hear mermaids sing
There is a treasure that shines for you
Beneath the ocean waves

Mermaids know
What the sea can show to you
Right now it seems like you've shipwrecked your brightest dreams
Oh, but they're still alive
They will thrive as you rise up from the deep

Dive like a dolphin down beneath the waves
Hear mermaids sing
There is a treasure that shines for you
Beneath the ocean waves

What they told you
Isn't all true
I'm not drowning
Don't need a rescue
If you want to see, come and swim with me
You will remember
Remember how to breathe

Dive like a dolphin down beneath the waves
Hear mermaids sing
There is a treasure that shines for you
Beneath the ocean waves
