Oh, I guess I'm preaching again
Trying to be big cos I feel so small
Trying to win your favor by pulling you up
From the hole you never were in
Oh, when at last I open my eyes
Do you think, do you think
You could let me touch you
I can't be your wonder woman
Me and my fear will both be here
When I take you on

Wonder woman, Wonder woman, Wonder woman
I can't be your
Wonder woman, Wonder woman, Wonder woman
I can't be your wonder woman

But I could get lost in your skin
Reach for the warmth beyond illusion
Instead of this game that we know is the same
That we've played since we chose to begin
When at last you open your eyes
Do you think, do you think
I could let you touch me
I can't be your wonder woman
Say is it true, that if I don't move, the Earth will?

Wonder woman, Wonder woman, Wonder woman
I can't be your
Wonder woman, Wonder woman, Wonder woman
I can't be your wonder woman

Between us, paper thin
The walls of illusion are crumbling
If we don't move, if we hold still, the Earth will
The sound of your voice

And your breath on my face
Keeping me locked into time and space
Say is it true that if we don't move, the Earth will?
