Chorus: Heaven knows I love you girl
I've never felt this way before
Each day I love you more and more and more

People always stare at us
When we're together
Cos we laugh and joke and
Always have a ball
We're friends and that makes
It so much better
We respect each other too
I was lucky the day
I found you

Chorus: Heaven knows I love you girl
I've never felt this way before
Each day I love you more and more and more

I've found a little place for us
To go and be alone
Let's fix it up the way we want
And call it home sweet home
Our love is priceless
It's so so rare
We believe in the same things too
Oh I was lucky the day
The day that I found you

Chorus: Heaven knows I love you girl
I've never felt this way before
Each day I love you more and more and more

Jermaine:
Precious is a love
That's based on truth
No words can ever describe
The way I love you
You know when two hearts beat as one
When two minds think as one
They can overcome any obstacles
And always stay together

Chorus: Heaven knows I love you girl
Heaven knows I love you girl
Heaven knows I love you girl
Heaven knows I love you girl
