So Glad (So Glad)
So Glad (So Glad)
So Glad, to be back in your arms

Thank you baby (Thank you baby)
Thank you baby
Back where I Belong

Oh, I went out to do my thing
And I was totally rejected
I put you down for love unknown
But it wasn't what I expected

So freightend and confused
I came running back to you
I got right down on my knees
And said darling won't you please

I don't know why you did it
But I'm not too proud to admit it, baby

Thank you baby
Thank you baby (Back where I belong)
It's great to be here, Ooh (Great to be here)
It's great to be here in your arms
Back where I belong

Adventure grabbed my heart
And it took me away from you, honey
I met all kinds of pretty girls
In every town that I passed through

But that firey Senorita
Burned me down in Mexico
And I got kisses cold as ice
From my Alaskan Eskimo

I feel guilty and ashamed
But I'm gonna say it just the same, baby

Thank you baby

Thank you baby, yeah (Back where I belong)
It's great to be here, Ooh (Great to be here)
It's great to be here in your arms

Now yes says senorita
She gave me I'll just si ya!
While kissing in the igloo
My Eskimo said no, no!

Yeah baby
So glad (So glad)
So glad (So glad)
So glad to be back in your arms

It's great to be here (Great to be here)
It's great to be here in your arms (Back where I belong)
Baby, baby, baby, baby, OW!

It's great to be here, ooh (Great to be here)
It's great to be here in your arms (Back where I belong)
Yeah, yeah, yeah

It's great to be here (Great to be here)
It's great to be here in your arms (Back where I belong)
Baby, baby, baby, baby, YEAH!

It's great to be here (Great to be here)
It's great to be here in your arms
I'm so glad (Back where I belong)
