Jack still cries day and night
Jack's not happy with his life
He want to do this, he want to do that
You want to be kind, but ends up flat for love
For love

He tries so hard to give a lot
He wants to be what he is not
Love's not harsh and love's not bad
And what's he doing for love is so bad
(He wants to be so bad)
(He wants to be so bad) All the time getting in
Things he can't get out
Something deep inside of him
Eating up the pride of him
That makes him buy things for the girls
(That's what you get for being polite)
(For being polite)

Jack still sits all alone
He lives the world that is his own
He's lost in thought of who to be
I wish to God that he would see just love
Give him love

He tries so hard to give a lot
He wants to be what he is not
Love's not harsh and love's not bad
And what's he doing for love is so sad
(He wants to be so bad)
(He wants to be so bad) All the time getting in
Things he can't get out
Something deep inside of him
Eating up the pride of him
That makes him buy things for the girls
(That's what you get for being polite)
(For being polite)

(Jack still) Tryin' to make you happy, but...
(Jack still) Tryin' to make you happy, but...
(Jack still) Tryin' to make you happy, but he's not, but he's not

(Jack still) Tryin' to make you, but don't you know he cries

(Jack still) Don't you know he's scared

(Jack still) It's often for his love, it's for his love

Don't you know he often cries about you

He cries about me

He cries about you (You) and me (And me)

And every little thing that's in his way

He cries about me

He cries about you (You) and me (And me)

Know that he deserves to cry

(Jack still) Don't you know he cries

(Jack still) Don't you know he's scared

(Jack still) It's often for his love, yeah, yeah

Don't you know, don't you know, don't you know, don't you know

Don't you know, don't you know, don't you know, don't
you know

He cries, he cries because there is a lack of love
