That gesture almost sounds sincere thanks for your
Concern
But I'm so much better now, my how that burns
Things are spinning faster now, or so it seems
Now may I present you with this apple made of dreams

Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?
Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?

I watched your face light up when treachery was near
Yet in the arms of halcyon you're crippled with fear
I'd like to keep things nice for you, I'm sorry to say
We're stuck in this maze we've made, we've all lost our Way

Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?
Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?

That gesture almost sounds sincere thanks for your
Concern
But I'm so much better now, my how that burns
Things are spinning faster now, or so it seems
Now may I present you with this apple made of dreams

Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?
Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?

The flame of life burns in a song
Brand new thunder pure and strong
"I'm still with the fight", flickers the light

Sonic made in our own shrine
You for end and me we combine
"I'm still with the fight", flickers the light

That gesture almost sounds sincere thanks for your
Concern
But I'm so much better now, my how that burns
Things are spinning faster now, or so it seems
Now may I present you with this apple made of dreams

Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?
Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?

Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?
Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?

Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?
Have you fallen into echoes of never
A shadow of a shadow in the twilight of the idols?
