Troubles came a callin
Like they did before
I finally got around to showing them the door
This time I put my foot down
Said come back some other time
Cause I'm all through cryin

Since I met you baby
I'll never be the same
Things you've brought me over
Is going up in flame
From this day on I know
The sun is gonna shine
And I'm all through cryin

I've got to thank somebody
For bring you to me
For sending me the love
I thought I'd never see
For it was only tears
That had me blind
And I'm all through cryin
And I'm all through cryin
