My river's too deep
Too wide to cross the leap
And the mountain is way too high to climb
Well I'd love to be your man
But someone's taking it out of my hand
So goodbye baby (oh now)
Goodbye baby (I said now)
Goodbye baby
Better luck next time

I better make a move
Cause your mother don't approve
And I ain't about to try to change her mind
She's finally made me see
That our romance wasn't made to be
So goodbye baby (oh)
Goodbye baby (said now)
Goodbye baby
Better luck next time

Now excuse me if I run
But your daddy's got his gun
And I think I better quit while I'm behind (oh now)
I've never once been beat
But this time gotta admit defeat
So goodbye baby (oh oh)
Goodbye baby (yeah yeah)
I said now
Goodbye baby better luck next time
I said now
Goodbye baby better luck next time
