Darling if ever you refuse me, like I know you will one day I won't let the change confuse me
I'll know that's my cue to walk away.

When I feel my chances growing slimmer, and there's every chance they may
When the love light in your eyes goes dimmer
I know that's my cue to walk away

I won't hang around, where I'm not wanted wouldn't make no sense to stay woo woo, when I feel my chances growing slimmer when there's nothing left to say,
When the love light in your eyes goes dimmer
I know that's my cue to walk away

(Instrumental)

I won't hang around where I'm not wanted
Wouldn't make no sense to stay wooo.... when I feel my chances going slimmer
and there's every chance they may
When the love light in your eyes goes dimmer
I'll know that's my cue to walk away,
I know I know I know that's my cue to walk away.

Hmmm.....
