It never made any difference
I can see what you do to me
I was so empty in love with you
You always said that you love me
But the words couldn't mean that much
I only know the way you treated me

Livin' on the borderline
Livin' on the borderline with you
Livin' on the borderline
Livin' on the borderline with you

You got yourself a new image
And parade it so gallantly
I really tried but didn't understand
Now it seems much better
If I just turn and walk away
There's no reason to go on and on

Livin' on the borderline
Livin' on the borderline with you
Livin' on the borderline
Livin' on the borderline with you

There always was something
Always was something that got in my way
When I felt your love I never knew
If it was night or was day

There always was something
Always was something that got in my way
I looked in the mirror, I didn't know
If it was night or was day

You never had any reason
For the way you led me to believe
You would always be in love with me
Now it seems much better
If I just turn and walk away
I'll always know just what you meant to me

Livin' on the borderline
Livin' on the borderline with you
Livin' on the borderline
Livin' on the borderline with you
