Last night, I found out
He's not coming back
I should've known, way back when
We were bound to end
I took my car, talked to stars
Lost without a name
Pulled myself together
I saw the sun come through the rain
Chorus:
It's just a thorn in my rose, I'll use it to bloom
Just a cut in my hand, it'll heal real soon
It's another little lesson, that I already knew
It's just a thorn in my rose, I'll use it
I woke up, alone in bed
But you pulled me back to sleep
A cluttered mind, one bruised heart
Gonna make a brand new start
Yeah I will, watch me now
You are gone, but my soul's around
All I need, is here to stay
I feel love come through this pain
Chorus:
It's just a thorn in my rose, I'll use it to bloom
Just a cut in my hand, it'll heal real soon
It's another little lesson, that I already knew
It's just a thorn in my rose, I'll use it
I won't cry because it's over
I will smile because it happened
It's a beginning to an end
Even without you
I will get by
I'll get, I'll get by
Chorus:
It's just a thorn in my rose, I'll use it to bloom
Just a cut in my hand, it'll heal real soon
It's another little lesson, that I already knew
It's just a thorn in my rose, I'll use it, use it
Use it, use it, use it to bloom
Use it, use it, use it to bloom
