So it's another night of despair with you
My friends don't know why I'm with you
I tell them that it's just plain fun
But they know it's too heavy and it must
It must be love
Time has past and you're still the same
My Momma says you can't change a man
But I know you're trapped within four walls
And I'm staying till we break
Till we break them all

Chorus:

And we'll dance like no one is looking
And we'll laugh when nothing is funny
And we'll love like it's never gonna hurt
Yes we'll love like it's never gonna hurt
Now don't you worry, I'm by your side
There's no need to fear, we're bona fide
We'll make it through, we'll make things right
I'll be with you till the end
Till the end of time

Chorus:

And we'll dance like no one is looking
And we'll laugh when nothing is funny
And we'll love like it's never gonna hurt
Yes we'll love like it's never gonna hurt
Six days ago you came to me
Told me much more about your history
I still love you the same
That ain't gonna change
My heart will always, always feel the same

Chorus:

And we'll dance like no one is looking
And we'll laugh when nothing is funny
And we'll love like it's never gonna hurt
And we'll dance like no one is looking
And we'll laugh when nothing is funny
And we'll love like it's never gonna hurt
Yes we'll love like it's never gonna hurt
Yes we'll love like it's never gonna, like it's never gonna, like it's Never gonna

Yes we'll love like it's never gonna hurt
