"Broken By Inertia"

Even people
Broken by inertia
Go to the ground for good
Go on baby
Make yourself another
Just stop asking me

[Chorus:]
You were waiting on
A lie to calm you down
Tear into you
And down your bones and veins
When everything turns around
We'll laugh about all today's darkness

Take these ashes
Blow them in the ocean
Keep a piece with you
I don't care if
Everything is stolen
Just make sure it's used

[Chorus]
Even people
Broken by inertia
Go to the ground for good
Go on baby
Make yourself another
Just stop asking me
