Well I bet your kicking yourself for letting me walk away
You're making yourself a list of things you wish you didn't say.
Sitting by the phone, hoping it's gonna ring.

Tell me you get lonely, when it gets cold outside
Tell me that your only, barely getting by.
I need to know it hurts, every time that you hear my
name,
It ain't the same without me girl,
Tell me you get lonely.

Sometimes you're up all night, crying over me.
You gotta take off of work to catch up on your sleep,
But that just don't work now does it baby.

Tell me you get lonely when it gets cold outside
Tell me that you're only, barely getting by.
I need to know that it hurts every time that you hear my
name,
It ain't the same without me girl, tell me you get lonely
(Yea baby, I know you do)

Tell me you get lonely and I'll come back,
All you gotta do is call me, my bags been packed.
I'm dying of pride, but I want you to know!

That I get lonely when its gets cold outside,
Baby, I'm only barely getting by.
And it still hurts every time I hear your name
It ain't the same without you girl, Baby, I get lonely.
Yea baby I get lonely. Tell me you get lonely too,
Tell me you get lonely!
