totally timeless our love seemed to be something universal something in lifes keep springing from within the heart but knowing it takes time but I cant have a feeling that is only me whos walking a mile feels like Ive been tryin and tryin and tryin for quite a while but I cant have a feeling that is only me whos walking a mile

I still remember the days we used to bring then when we were together in a way that would beat everything I know you never promised that things would stay in this way even a while and now stuck with a feeling that is only me whos walking a mile

while but I cant have feelings that is only me whos walking a

while

baby, baby oh baby Im walking a mile
ohh baby
