Lead vocal: john miles

Look at me now, a shadow of the man i used to be Look through my eyes and through the years of lonliness you'll see

To the times in my life when i could not stand to lose, a simple game
And the least of it all was the fortune and the fame
But the dream seemed to end just as soon as it had begun, was i to know?
For the least thing of all that was on my mind, was the close at the End of the show
The shadow of a lonely man, feels nobody else
In the shadow of a lonely, lonely man
I can see myself

(looking out of nowhere, looking out of nowhere)

But the sounds of the crowds when they come to see me now, is not the same And the jest of it all is i can't recall my name
But i'll cling to a hope till i can't hold on anymore, anymore
And for all the acclaim i am all alone and i see as i look through the door

The shadow of a lonely man, there's nobody else
In the shadow of a lonely, lonely man
I can see myself

Look at me now, a shadow of the man i used to be
