Palace of rainy sky
I don't care about this world
I feel like a king of pain
I live in the palace of rainy sky
My skin is white eyes are red
My body's trembling I'm so scared
I live in the palace of rainy sky

My love for you
My sky for you
But now I have to say goodbye
My legs for you
My hands for you
So don't be sad 'couse it's o'right

I'm so glad but I'm blue
I'm so sad but I'm true
I live in the palace of rainy sky
My skin is pale eyes are wet
My veins are bleeding I'm so scared
I live in the palace of rainy sky
