Out here were lost again
Got a feeling I know this is the end
The scenery has got me on the run
Can't stand the slave they all become

Back inside there out of control
I gotta stay in line to save my soul
They'll never take it away
They'll never take it away
I've got the lion in my heart

Can't stop running I gotta keep running
Ride on and on and on
Can't keep running I gotta stop running
Ride on and on and on

There I was back inside again
Wasting time in another line

Oh no I'm lost again
Got a feeling I know this is the end
They'll never take it away
They'll never take it away
I've got the lion in my heart
