I heard you bragging 'bout the boys you took
Are you a victim or a small-time crook
Or just a little fool?
You know it's up to you

You're no princess
You're a prima donna
Can't understand why the world wasn't handed to you
You know it's up to you

Yeah
When you're deep inside your head
Justify the blame

Six green olives and a champagne basket
Paid the bill with your boyfriend's plastic
What a little fool
Takes one to get to two

Stirring a tin cup with a silver spoon
Tell me, honey
Who is possessing who?
You know it's up to you
