[Madlib]

Hey Quas, let em know why you the bad character

[Quasimoto]

I only come out when the sky gets dark, in the night time

We get sharp light, when it's the right time

I run around town scalping old folks for butter knives

No regards for nothing, we all up on the gutter life

I keep it on the down low, just like a terrorist

Planning out the illest shit but always keep it errorless

I'm like a bully that started out in the first grade

Picking out the chumps in class, that's when the nurse came

Sticking pencils in the hand of the principal

Heh, there's nothing you can tell me cuz i'm feeling indismissable.

Yo it's the bad character, you know the routine

Smoking dough in the back of the church with with Rev too clean

Hey Willie, imma never grow up

I got toys from my others

The last person that took us is permanently swimming with fishes

give a what you think of my life, hitting every wife cuz we all up on strife

[Madlib]

Hey Quas, leave him alone...oh shit

[Quasimoto]

I tie you up to the back of my car

Take a phone trip, after ten drinks at a bar

It's like a belt yo, I be hitting mad tail

Doom's nominated for the best rolled L's

Quas is nominated for the best sold spells

Madlib is often hated because he has less cells

The new breed, Quasimoto take-over

Connect the dots so we can get the...shake rover

Leave a taste of baking soda

Thought I told ya to take a piss like you was my stepson

The chosen one, come and get some Like one time this brotha blew my bathroom up trying to get relief
But didn't know I roll my toilet paper on poison ivy leaf Heh, give a what you think of my life, hitting every wife cuz we all up on strife
