Never neen so lonely with so many friends
Never drawn so few pictures with so many crayons
Never seen so much when it's been so cloudy
Never felt so empty with so many feelings

I've got that empty feeling
Inside my bluegrey brain
What's with that empty feeling
Driving me crazy

One too many friends found floating face down in a river
Or blown up in their car because of one too many DUI's
One too many things I see that don't make sense to me
One too many days go by with no prayer on my lips

I've got that empty feeling
Inside my bluegrey brain
What's with that empty feeling
Driving me crazy
