The sun goes down on another day
I'm left not knowing what to say
Whenever I see you I want to smile
But I look away because I'm not
Your style

I notice you, do you notice me?
You look confused but so do I
I think of you, do you think of me?
Maybe together we can try

I see you standing over there alone
My heart's pounding like it's going
To explode
It's so hard for me to get up the nerve
To tell you the things that you deserve

I notice you, do you notice me?
You look confused but so do I
I think oooooof you, do you think of me?
Maybe together we can try
