You're never proud and I'm not allowed to make mistakes I'm always too much and never enough
I just can't win

I get so confused
don't know what to do
maybe I'm just dumb
because everything I seem to do is wrong

When I try to talk you shout freak out
I feel like I'm going to break

Coz I'm sick of feeling so confused
no matter what I do
I seem to always lose
and it's just no use
cause all this abuse is the only thing I ever seem to get I'm through because nothings ever good enough for you

I'm trying my best to make you impressed but it's no good you just shoot me down and push me around
I just can't win

I get so confused
don't know what to do
maybe I'm just dumb
because everything I seem to do is wrong

freak out

Coz I'm sick of feeling so confused
no matter what I do

and it's just no use
coz all this abuse
is the only thing I ever seem to get I'm through

You keeps making no sense when you talk so I'm taking this chance to walk away!

Coz I'm sick of feeling so confused
no matter what I do
and it's just no use

Nothings ever good enough for you
