sick of waking up to nothing and i'm so bored every day feels like the same day i've seen it before it feels like im just waiting to breathe, to breathe, to breathe cuz i've tried all i can
but i can't understand
why this always happens to me and it feels like it never gets better for me, for me, for me, for me

and it looks like i'll never get out of here why me? why me?

every time it's looking better something goes wrong i'm sick of waiting for the phone call it's taking too long it feels like im just wasting my time, my time, my time
but i cant understand

why me? why me?

and it feels like i've lost everything and it feels like my worlds caving in and i need help i cant seem to find my way out

and it looks like i'll never get out of here
why me? why me?
